

Port Operator Liability Insurance

Features and Benefits

EXPERTISE • SERVICE • SECURITY

Port operators occupy a unique position in the global logistics chain and offer a diverse combination of both landlord and operational services. Operational services can include marine traffic control, cargo handling and storage facilities, security services, emergency response services, environmental protection, channel maintenance, advisory services, residential development and management of public facilities.

With such a diverse range of services, port operators are exposed to a wide variety of risks, including marine and land based risks as well as international and domestic risks.

Zurich's Port Operator Liability insurance solution is designed to provide a comprehensive insurance and risk management solution for port operators, which includes a broad scope of insurance cover, tailor made solutions and specific risk management services. Our specialist team has extensive experience with the port industry and includes specialist underwriters, maritime layers and risk engineers.
